

The Lakeshore Natural Resource Partnership, Inc. (LNRP)

We support community-based conservation and environmental stewardship in one of the unique and most inspiring areas of Wisconsin – The Lakeshore Region! Your generous support assures LNRP can carry out its programs, projects and events with collaborative partners. You receive our monthly e-newsletter, The Source, invitations to events, and all our announcements and news.

Who are the Supporters of the LNRP?

Individuals, organizations, and businesses who believe in a healthy environment, a sustainable economy, people joining forces to help solve local and regional natural resource issues. LNRP supports community efforts and creative regional collaborations engaging in conservation and stewardship, by involving all stakeholders in constructive dialog, raising awareness, and carrying out meaningful actions. They're people like you!
